

THOUSANDS STAND UNCOVERED IN RAIN

Body of Late Mayor Gaynor
Removed to City Hall After Private Services.

NEW YORK IN MOURNING

Public Funeral Will Be Held
Monday in Old Trinity Church.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—In the rotunda of the city hall, the scene of his years of labor for the municipality whose executive he was, the body of William Jay Gaynor lies in state tonight, his coffin draped in the white silken folds of the mayor's official flag, and watched over by a guard of honor from the city's police and firemen.

The mayor's body, landed here yesterday from the liner Lusitania, and taken to his late home in Brooklyn, where private funeral services were held this afternoon, was brought this evening, through a drizzling rain, to the city hall, from the steps of which, less than three weeks ago, he accepted a people's nomination for re-election to the mayoralty.

Public Funeral Monday.

Tomorrow at 8 o'clock the doors of the city hall will be opened, and from that hour until sunset, or later, two separate lines of citizens will have opportunity to pass from the plaza in front of the building past the coffin on its bier in the somberly draped rotunda and on out through the north entrance, after gazing upon the dead mayor's features. On Monday the public funeral will be held in Old Trinity church.

The private services in the Gaynor home were held two hours before the body was brought to Manhattan, the little gathering there including only immediate members of the family and a few close friends. The service, brief and simple, was read by Rev. Frank W. Page of Culpeper, Va., formerly pastor of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church in Brooklyn, of which Mayor Gaynor was a communicant.

The clergyman's tribute was personal and intimate. No one knew the man Gaynor better than the speaker.

himself, Dr. Page said, and his eulogy of the late mayor's character and good deeds was a heartfelt message of consolation to the mourning family and friends. "The city had lost its best servant when Mayor Gaynor died," Dr. Page concluded, "and later its people probably would realize this and do in his memory what the people of Cleveland had done in Tom Johnson's—erect a monument to him."

Promptly at 4 o'clock, 200 mounted policemen stood at attention outside the coffin containing the body of the mayor was carried from the house by firemen and policemen, and placed in the hearse, while departmental heads and members of the board of estimate, acting as escort, stood with bared heads. The funeral cortege then made its slow way to New York across the Brooklyn bridge.

Thousands Stand in Rain.

At least 50,000 persons stood uncovered in the drizzling rain as the procession, headed by mounted police, marched to the city hall. Eight automobiles, following the hearse, carried members of the board of estimate, Mayor Adolph Kline, Robert Adamson, the late mayor's secretary, R. A. C. Smith, commissioner of docks and ferries, and Police Commissioner Waldo. No member of the mayor's family accompanied the body.

All during the day vehicles drove up to the Gaynor home with floral offerings, and it was necessary to employ two automobiles to carry the flowers when the procession started.

RUMOR THAT "BIG TIM" WAS VICTIM OF PLOT

By International News Service.
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The report that "Big Tim" Sullivan was lured from the residence of his brother, Patrick Sullivan, where he was living, by a telephone call and later murdered before being left on the railroad track, is being carefully investigated tonight.

Each day the opinion becomes stronger among the friends of the former Bowery politician that he was murdered, and even placed on the track of the New Haven railroad. The statement made by the brakeman that the body was cold, together with conflicting statements by several persons close to "Big Tim," has caused a general desire for a thorough investigation.

Detectives from the office of District Attorney Whitman are now investigating the death of Sullivan and the inquest will be held on September 29.

BODY LAY FOR MONTHS IN CLUMP OF BUSHES

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The body of a man that lay for several months in a clump of bushes near the New Haven railroad tracks in Hastings-on-Hudson until its discovery a few days ago was identified tonight, but the police still had no clue to the manner in which he died. Israel Robinson of New York said the body was that of his old friend, Max Gerfinkle, a vaudeville acrobat.

Robinson said he had last seen Gerfinkle eight months ago. The police are satisfied that the acrobat was murdered, because near his body lay an improvised slingshot made of stones tied up in a silk sleeve lining, and because the man's skull had been crushed by a blow. They are still looking for the woman who was seen in strange actions near the thicket where the body lay led to its discovery.

FEEL HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS? CLEAN YOUR LIVER! A DIME A BOX

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lazy liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache. Cascarets will remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on and out of the bowels. One taken tonight straightens you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular, and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too.

according to Serge B. Campbell, secretary of the committee. More than thirty ward and church organizations have already entered the ticket selling contest and many individuals are also working. Prof. Kimball leaves next month for Europe to continue his musical studies and his friends are joining in making the testimonial an expression of appreciation for the immense amount of public work he has done in the many years he has been engaged in musical activities.

As accompanist for the Salt Lake opera company Prof. Kimball established himself in the local musical world and since that time has held several important positions. His organ work has included a long period as organist of the First Methodist church and also several years as assistant organist at the tabernacle, a position he now holds and will continue to hold while away. Prof. Kimball's work as head of the musical department at the L. D. S. university was of such character that the officials of the school reluctantly parted with his services when his other duties had multiplied to such an extent as to require his entire time.

In theatrical work this young musician has had a varied experience, having been at different times organist at the Orpheum, Rex and American theaters. He is now engaged at the latter place. The program for the testimonial will include a selection from a vaudeville opera composed by Prof. Kimball. It will be rendered by a chorus of girls. Two organ numbers will be rendered also in response to the demands of his many friends. The balance of the program is now being made up by a special committee.

UTAH WOMAN AGAINST MILITANT METHODS

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 20.—Federation of Women's Clubs of America will give no official recognition to Mrs. Pankhurst, the militant suffragette, when she arrives in the United States. This assertion was made today by Mrs. C. H. McMahon of the executive board of the federation, which is now in session here. She is a voter in the state of Utah.

"We don't believe in militant methods to gain the ballot," said Mrs. McMahon. "But we do believe in political equality, and we sincerely hope the day will come when all women in the United States will have the privilege of the ballot on an equal footing with the men."

MURDERER SENTENCED TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 20.—Harry Rasico, who shot and killed his wife and 2-year-old son here Saturday, was sentenced today to die in the electric chair at the state prison in Michigan City on January 18, 1914. He is the first person to be sentenced to electrocution in Indiana, and the state will have to purchase the electric chair before the sentence can be carried out. The law substituting electrocution for hanging was passed by the last legislature, and state officials refused to purchase the outfit until it became necessary to use it.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Beware of freak diets and of fakers calling themselves food experts; eat what you want when you feel like it, giving attention to cleanliness and wholesome cooking.

This is the official advice of the department of agriculture in a warning to the public issued tonight as a result of an investigation just finished by government specialists into the operations of self-styled "experts in dietetics."
